

EXPLOSIVES ACT OF 1970 (EXCERPT)
Act 202 of 1970

29.49 Permit; revocation, grounds; procedures.

Sec. 9. An issuing officer may revoke a permit when he has reasonable cause to believe that its possession by the holder constitutes a substantial and immediate danger to the public health, safety and welfare. The procedures set forth in this act applicable to the refusal of issuance of a permit shall apply to revocation.

History: 1970, Act 202, Eff. Apr. 1, 1971.